

We're looking forward to seeing you in-person and online next week when classes begin.

You've made a wise decision to start, re-start or continue your college education this Fall. According to a report cited by CNBC, "Education is probably more strongly correlated with future happiness throughout adulthood than any other variable."

We invite you to take advantage of the College's many support services to assist you with your journey here at West Los Angeles College. Learn more about how to receive $400 for textbooks, academic counseling, a team to keep you on track (EOPS & TRIO SSS), free tutoring and so much more at WLAG.edu/Services-Resources.

Here's a few other important items to know if you will be on campus this semester.

THE CAMPUS IS OPEN

- ✓ SERVICE HOURS Admissions, Financial Aid and the Business Office provide IN-PERSON service Mon – Thur 8:30am – 5:00pm. You can reach them by phone, email and/or Live Chat Mon – Fri. Find the in-person and remote service hours for these and other offices at WLAG.edu/Services-Resources.
- ✓ CHECK-IN & MASK UP Whether you're coming to Admissions or Financial Aid, using the computer lab in the Library, or attending an in-person class, remember to:
 1. Use the COVID check-in on our home page or phone app
 2. Wear your face mask indoors including offices and the classroom

ACCESSING YOUR CLASSES

- ✓ Classes are now offered in-person, online or a combination of the two. Check your schedule to know the format of your class. See examples of how online, in-person, and combination online/in-person classes are listed.
- ✓ Need Internet Access? Use the computers in the college Library or Learning Center.
