Welcome

Dear Students, WELCOME to OUR Online Summer 2015 Introduction to Business Course. I hope you had a FANTASTIC Spring semester, are feeling energized, motivated and awesome (as you all are), because you deserve it. We will have a GREAT time this Summer. The main goal is for you to discover the many facets of the business world, understand what those mean, and learn by doing. The skills you learn here will help you succeed both in and out of class. I believe learning is fun, and by helping one another, we move forward faster and stronger. I believe in each one of you. Be the change you want in your life. I am here for you. Remind this city, and yourself, everyday, why you are here. ☺ Cheers, Gus.

Course Description

This course is a survey of the fundamental aspects of all phases of business including entrepreneurship alternatives, management/leadership, marketing, financial management and institutions, investing through the securities market, and challenges facing global markets.

Incomplete: If you want to request an “I” (Incomplete), let me know as soon as possible, so that we can discuss the terms for completion.

Grades: Your lowest score for the business cases, the exercises, and the quizzes won’t affect your grades.

I will post multiple-choice exercises for each chapter, where you will have up to 10 chances to get it right. After those, you will be given a short quiz, where you will have only one chance.
Class Policies

Attendance
Because this is an online course, attendance is the equivalent of not visiting the etudes site. I will take every 2 days without visiting the etudes site as one absence.

Walking In and Out of ‘Class’
Online the principle is the same. Behave, always, in the most respective way. Treat all with the utmost respect. And, when commenting on each other works, focus always on the positive, refraining from any negative comments. Even if the answer was wrong, offensive, and the student has left it blank. Even in those cases, don’t say anything negative, focus on the rubric.

Preparedness
Work hard, deliver the assignments by the deadline, and you will be up for 100% of the points available. Missing a deadline will reduce the total points for each assignment by 5% per day.

Cell Phones, iPods, etc.
Use all technology you can all the time to help you succeed.

Contacting Me
E-mail is the best and quickest way to contact me. If you have a problem, do not let it snowball. Contact me immediately. Students are expected to ask questions and obtain help from instructor via email and/or during office hours. You can also text me if it is an emergency. In such case, please remember to write your name and the course section you are taking. My mobile is 818.914.8499.

Refer to the course website/blog for more information on UMOJA policies.

College Policies

Academic Integrity (Plagiarism)
In accordance with code 9803.28, academic dishonesty is prohibited. Violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to, the following actions: cheating on an exam, plagiarism, working together on an assignment, paper or project when the instructor has specifically stated students should not do so, submitting the same term paper to more than one instructor, or allowing another individual to assume one’s identity for the purpose of enhancing one’s grade. Academic dishonesty of any type, such as cheating or knowingly furnishing false information, by a student provides grounds for disciplinary action by the instructor or college. In written work, no material may be copied from another without proper quotation marks, footnotes, or appropriate documentation.

- Plagiarism will result in a zero for the assignment, possible dismissal from the class and disciplinary action from the college. You will not receive credit for any essay missing previous drafts, citations and/or a Works Cited page.

Student Conduct
According to code 9803.15, disruption of classes or college activities is prohibited. Refer to the catalog and the Standards of Student Conduct in the Schedule of Classes for more information.
Recording Devices
State law in California prohibits the use of any electronic listening or recording device in a classroom without prior consent of the instructor and college administration. Any student who needs to use electronic aids must secure the consent of the instructor. If the instructor agrees to the request, a notice of consent must be forwarded to the Vice President of Academic Affairs for approval (WLAC College Catalog). Since this is an online course, you are NOT to record the instructor’s videos, nor saving it or downloading without written authorization from this instructor.

Campus Resources
As stated earlier in this syllabus, if you are having problems, don’t let them snowball. Come and talk with me and check out some of the campus resources available to you.

Office of Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSP&S)
Heldman Learning Resources Center (HLRC), Room 119 | (310) 287-4450.
West Los Angeles College recognizes and welcomes its responsibility to provide an equal educational opportunity to all disabled individuals. The Office of Disabled Students Programs and Services (DSP&S) has been established to provide support services for all verified disabled students pursuing a college education. DSP&S students may qualify for: priority registration, registration assistance, special parking permits, sign language interpreters and assistive technology (WLAC College Catalog).

Instructional Support (Tutoring) & Learning Skills Center
Heldman Learning Resources Center (HLRC) | (310) 287-4486
Improve your reading, language, vocabulary, spelling, math fundamentals and chemistry knowledge with convenient, self-paced computer-aided courses in the Learning Skills Center. Increase your knowledge and learning success: sign up for tutoring in various college subjects (WLAC College Catalog).

Library Services
Heldman Learning Resources Center (HLRC) | (310) 287-4269 & (310) 287-4486
The WLAC Library provides instruction on how to use the online catalog, periodical and research databases. In addition to a large collection of books, periodicals and videos the WLAC Library has course textbooks which students may use while in the Library. Web access is available in LIRL as well as meeting rooms. The upper floors provide a beautiful view ideal for study (WLAC College Catalog).
