SCHOLAR-ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

November/December 2014

DIANA LIZAMA - WOMEN’S SOCCER

Diana Lizama has been selected by the West Los Angeles College Athletic Department as the female Scholar-Athlete of the Month for November/December 2014. Ms. Lizama is a steadfast sophomore hailing from Alexander Hamilton High School. Athletically, as a defensive center-midfielder, Diana has contributed immense strength, stability and poise to the Wildcat midfield. Academically, Ms. Lizama currently possesses a 3.17 grade point average. She is working towards earning an Associate degree in Liberal Arts and Sciences with an emphasis in Math, Science, and Computer Science. She plans to transfer to California Polytechnic University, Pomona to pursue a Bachelor’s degree in Animal Health Science. After earning her undergraduate degree, she will attend graduate school, and pursue a career as a Veterinarian.

OVIE TOMAKILI - MEN’S BASKETBALL

We are pleased to honor Mr. Ovie Tomakili as the Athletic Department male Scholar-Athlete of the Month for November/December 2014. Mr. Tomakili is a graduate of El Segundo High School, where he was a four year letterman in basketball. As a Wildcat, he is a natural small forward who is known for his spectacular three point shot, and versatile defensive skills. Due to recent injuries in the Wildcat program, he has stepped up tremendously and played the center position. Academically, he boasts a 3.67 GPA, and in Fall 2014, he had an impressive 4.0 GPA. Ovie is planning to pursue a Bachelors degree in Business, with his sights set on pursuing the Leventhal School of Accounting at the University of Southern California, or the Haas School of Business at the University of California, Berkeley. Upon the completion of his undergraduate degree, he has aspirations of going on to graduate school, and pursuing a career in Accounting.
