Do not copy an article verbatim. Plagiarism is a serious violation. For further, see the below paragraph.

Plagiarism, as defined in the 1995 Random House Compact Unabridged Dictionary, is the "use or close imitation of the language and thoughts of another author and the representation of them as one's own original work." Plagiarism by students is considered academic dishonesty or academic fraud and offenders are subject to academic censure, up to and including expulsion. Some individuals caught plagiarizing claim that they plagiarized unintentionally, by failing to include quotations or give the appropriate citation. Any student who commits plagiarism in an Administration of Justice course will receive an "F" in the course and a notice sent to the Dean of Student Affairs. When writing papers, we will use the APA format, more on that later.
