WEST LOS ANGELES COLLEGE
Fall Semester 2013
CORRECTIONS 002 – Correctional Institutions
Section Number: 8517

Instructor: George G. Yan

The instructor is a tenured Professor with over twelve (12) years of experience teaching in the Administration of Justice Discipline with an emphasis on Corrections and Probation. He is also West Los Angeles College's representative to the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST), and Coordinator for the PC 832 - Arrest and Control courses.

With over eight years of training and teaching experience in the Los Angeles County Probation Department's Staff Training Office, the instructor is also certified by the Board of State and Community Corrections (BSCC) - Standards and Training for Corrections Program (STC). He has extensive experience in developing, implementing, and monitoring training for all levels of Probation personnel assigned to the juvenile halls, probation camps, and specialized gang functions.

Professor Yan is also a Probation Director assigned to Central Juvenile Hall, one of the largest juvenile halls in the nation. He is responsible for the overall operation of Division II (one of four divisions), which consists of eleven (11) living units that house juvenile offenders, both females and males, ranging from ages 13-18 who are detained pending the judicial process. Many of these juveniles are serious offenders with special needs as it relates to mental health issues, developmental disabilities, and dependency minors that are also criminal offenders (Dual Supervision - 241.1 WIC).

Previously, he was the Lead Supervising Deputy Probation Officer in the Intake and Detention Control Unit (IDC) at Eastlake with supervisory responsibilities for twelve (12) Deputy Probation Officers. He ensures that his deputies perform thorough investigations, make proper assessments, prepare high quality reports to the courts and articulate a sound recommendation whether to detain or release the juvenile offender pending judicial review. The decision to detain or release is made in accordance with the California Penal Code under the Welfare and Institutions Code (WIC), the policies and procedures of the Los Angeles Probation Department that reflect public safety, and what would be in the best interest of the minor.

On a daily basis, his deputies also advise and assist other law enforcement agencies in interpreting the juvenile laws and understanding the juvenile justice system.

The instructor has over 38 years of service with the Los Angeles County Probation Department. His knowledge and experience in Probation is extensive and diverse. He has worked directly with juvenile offenders in secured facilities such as juvenile halls and probation camps. He also supervised adult and juvenile Asian gang probationers in the community, worked closely with school officials in the Gang Alternative and Prevention Programs, community work service programs, recruitment and selection of probation personnel, staff training, and mentoring new probation employees. He also served on the oral interview panel, interviewing prospective candidates who are pursuing a career with the Probation Department.

His credentials include a Bachelor's degree in Sociology with a minor in Physical Education. He has completed over eighteen hundred (1800) hours of in-service training with Probation and other law enforcement agencies throughout the State of California. The instructor holds certificates in Peace Officer Standards and Training's (POST) PC 832-Arrest and control Course, Standards and Training for Corrections' (STC), Juvenile Corrections Officer Core (JCOC), Field Probation Officer Core (FPOC), Basic Supervisor Core (BSC), Manager/Administrator Core Course (MACC), Use of Chemical Agents, Basic Physical Restraints, and the Community Emergency Response Team (CERT).

Mr. Yan was awarded the academic rank of Assistant Professor in the Administration of Justice discipline at West Los Angeles College on November 27, 2001. His academic rank was elevated to Associate Professor on February 17, 2004, and on May 26, 2009, he was advanced to the rank of Professor.

Analyze problems by differentiating fact from opinions, using evidence, and using sound reasoning to specify multiple solutions and their consequences.

Communication:

Effectively communicate thought in a clear, well-organized manner to persuade, inform, and convey ideas in academic, work, family and community settings.

Civic Responsibility:

Apply the principles of civility to situations in the contexts of work, family, community and the global world.

Cultural Diversity:

Respectfully engage with other cultures in an effort to understand them.

Ethics:

Practice and demonstrate standards of personal and professional integrity, honesty and fairness; apply ethical principles in submission of all college work.

PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Describe the three branches of government: Identify the three branches of government and their application to the criminal justice process.

Describe the three components of the criminal justice system: Explain the relationship between the police, courts and corrections.

Compare and contrast the difference between how adults, juveniles, gays, homosexuals, lesbians, and cross-gender persons are handled by the criminal justice system: Explain why this is important.

Identify the federal, state and municipal law enforcement agencies: Explain their duties and responsibilities.

Demonstrate an awareness of cultural diversity: Explain race riots and police intervention tactics.

Identify the minimum standards of qualifications for employment in a criminal justice agency: Explain the hiring process and demonstrate an awareness of the different requirements of the police, courts, and corrections.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students with disabilities who believe they may need accommodations in this class are encouraged to contact Disabled Students Programs and Services located in SSB 320, phone number (310) 287-4450 as soon as possible to better ensure such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion.

DOING ONLINE COURSEWORK

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY!

Each week you will be asked to complete one lesson of the ONLINE course. Pay close attention to the vocabulary at the beginning of each lesson (hint: the vocabulary may appear on an exam).

Read the accompanying material regarding the lessons. Read the appropriate chapter in the textbook.

At the end of each lesson you will be asked to respond to several questions regarding the material from the chapter. Complete your essay as instructed in the Assignments, Tests and Surveys (AT&S) section.

Assignments will NOT be accepted after the specified date in the "Accept Until" column in the AT&S section.

GRADING OF ASSIGNMENTS

Since your postings are the only written requirements for the course, they should be a college-level work product. Your submissions will be graded not only for content, but also for critical thinking skills, correctness, presentation, spelling, and grammar. You should write your responses assuming that the reader (me) has little or no knowledge of the subject. Answers that are too brief or incomplete will not receive high marks.

Please do not copy word for word from the textbook.

Remember, these assignments are a significant part of your grade.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS-Any assignment that is late will lose one (1) point, and will not be accepted after the specified date in the "Accept Until" column in the Assignments, Tests and Surveys (AT&S) section.

GRADE SCALE

A = 500-450

B = 449-400

C = 399-350

D = 349-300

F = 299 and below

ATTEDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to attend every class meeting, to arrive on time and stay throughout the class period. Students may be dropped from class for excessive tardiness, for failure to attend the first day class or during the entire first week of the semester, or if the total number of absences exceed two times the number of hours the class meets per week.

Make-up of a missed exam or acceptance of a late assignment is at the discretion of the instructor.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

I will enforce strict rules of academic behavior. Any student found cheating on an examination or submitting work to the instructor that is not his/her own will receive an "F" for the work or exam, and may receive an "F" for the entire course at the discretion of the instructor.

STUDENT PROGRESS

College can be demanding, and life is not always as predictable as we would like it to be. Students are encouraged to speak with me as soon as possible should they fall behind in their studies and/or coursework due to unforeseen personal issues or emergencies.

I would rather work with you to either reorganize/catch-up, or make the decision to withdraw from the course than to be forced to give you a failing grade at the end of the semester.

It is your responsibility to drop or withdraw from the course. If your name is still on my roster at the end of the semester, you will receive whatever grade appears on the grade roster at that time.

I am available by e-mail or by appointment for consultation. Please note my office hours.
