2. Workbook: Genki: An Integrated Course in Elementary Japanese I (The Japan Times)

Course Description

This is a 5 unit course on the fundamentals of modern Japanese. As we will be starting from the beginning, it is intended for those who have no or little previous background in Japanese. This course provides the fundamentals of the Japanese language with emphasis on communication skills in listening, speaking, reading and writing in Japanese. The Japanese syllabary for Hiragana, Katakana and basic Kanji are introduced. In addition, the course introduces the study of Japanese culture. More specifically by the end of this course you will be able to Read: Read simple sentences and passages written in hiragana, katakana, and select kanji.

Write: Write using hiragana and katakana syllabaries and select kanji.

Listen: Understand simple face-to-face conversations in various settings.

Speak: Ask and answer simple questions on topics such as personal history and daily activities. Talk about both past and present events. Describe people and things using adjectives and state their location. Count and use numbers. Perform such tasks as introducing oneself, shopping, and, ordering in a restaurant.

Culture: Understand basic culture patterns, especially in regards to language, through exposure to pictures, videos and other materials

A large portion of class time will be spent in speaking practice so please come ready to participate and to perform the activities that are provided in class. Also, you can view and download class notes at www.etudes.org. Please visit the website to access classroom material as well as supplemental material. Your login ID is the first 2 letters of your first name + the first 2 letters of your last name + the last 5 digits of your Student ID Number. Your initial password is your Month and Day of birth.

Course Requirements

1. Attendance and Participation

As foreign language learning is not only the acquisition of knowledge but also the development of skills, it is essential that you attend class. A significant amount of class time will be spent practicing skills that you learn. Therefore, please come prepared to participate and speak Japanese. Attendance is part of your grade. Absences will result in not receiving attendance points. Tardiness and early departures will result in receiving partial attendance points.

2. Homework

Homework will be assigned from the workbook. It is due on the day listed on the syllabus. Late homework will be accepted for partial credit only.

3. Language Lab Requirement

West Los Angeles College Policy on Student Conduct

A student enrolling in one of the Los Angeles Community Colleges may rightfully expect that the faculty and administrators of the Colleges will maintain an environment in which there is freedom to learn. This requires that there be appropriate conditions and opportunities in the classroom and on the campus. As members of the college community, students should be encouraged to develop the capacity for critical judgment, to engage in the sustained and independent search for truth, and to exercise their rights to free inquiry and free speech in a responsible, non-violent manner. In the furtherance of the students' interest in free inquiry and the search for truth, it is also important that students be able to hear the views of non-students and engage in the free exchange of ideas with non-students. All persons shall respect and obey civil and criminal law, and shall be subject to legal penalties for violation of laws of the city, county, state and nation. All persons shall respect and obey the rules, regulations and policies of the Los Angeles Community College District. Conduct in all of the Los Angeles Community Colleges must conform to District and college rules and regulations. Violations of such rules and regulations may result in disciplinary action depending on the individual's status as student, faculty, staff or visitor. Students shall refrain from Academic dishonesty, such as cheating, plagiarizing, or knowingly furnishing false information to the College. When there is evidence of academic dishonesty, the instructor may issue the student a zero or "F" on that particular assignment or test. The instructor may also initiate student discipline
