Instructor: Dr. Ali Parsa

Office hours: By appointment (Either in WLAC or my Brentwood office)

Contacting me: Best to do it through the website's "private messages." I get it faster.

Required Text:

Gloria Fiero, The Humanistic Tradition: Volume I, (of the 2 volume series--not the 6 volume series, ISBN: 978-0-07-734627-0)

McGraw-Hill 2011 (6th Edition). Get older edition (5th) for cheaper price, if you want!

IMPORTANT NOTES:

The text reading assignment covers only a portion of the material you need to know for the tests. Website materials (on the Modules) are essential and participation in the "Weekly Discussions" is also very important for doing well on the exams.

GRADING & EXAMS:

10 multiple choice questions are given on every week's test.. 10 points

1 Essay question is given on every week's test..... 5 points

Total possible points on each week's exam 15 points

Total possible points for 15 exams (15 x 15* weeks).... 225 points

Participation in weekly discussions (total for the course)..... 30 points

TOTAL POSSIBLE POINTS FOR THE COURSE 255 points

*The lowest of the 16 exams will be dropped.

Each "Weekly Exam" is opened for you on Thursday at 6:00 a.m. You must take it before Sunday 5:00 p.m. (so you can finish by 6:00). However, as soon as you open the test, the clock begins ticking. You have total of 50 minutes to finish both parts (10 multiple choices + one essay). Don't wait till the last day if possible. You need to be well prepared before the exam. The essay questions will be given ahead of time (look at the end of each Module). You can work on them and write them before the exam. You can even copy-and-paste them on the exam, BUT they should be in your own words, and about 150 words. Participation points are given at the end of the semester based on your overall performance. There is No make-up exam since you have 3 ½ days to choose your convenient time. Use reliable internet connection. Interruption during the exam will end your exam and you cannot take it again. (Better use more reliable connection at home than one in a coffee shop!). Please remember, each student gets a different set of questions.

Course Description: This course is a survey of the cultural aspects of Western civilization, within its historical context, from the beginning throughout the Middle Ages. It explores the arts, architecture, literature, philosophy, and religion of the past in an integrated way. It focuses on the interrelationship among these human creative activities.

Course Goals, Objectives, and Student Learning Outcomes:
