Welcome
This semester, you will work to develop your understanding of the basic understanding of Child Development. You will also learn and practice the importance of best practices for early educational setting. The goal is for you to have a better understanding of how children develop through different stages, the theorist that have been contributors to the field and especially how adults need to respect a child's growth. The skills you learn here will help you succeed both in and out of class. However, your education is ultimately YOUR responsibility. YOU determine your level of success. Successful college students are self-motivated. Successful college students understand the importance of studying the material, coming to class prepared and practicing skills learned. YOU CAN DO IT and I'm here to help. 😊

Course Description
This course will provide an introduction to philosophies, practices, and the role of the Early Childhood Education professional, with emphasis on the teacher in various early childhood programs. The developmental characteristics of the age groups and curriculum and developmentally appropriate and culturally sensitive teaching practices are highlighted. The student becomes aware of various types of educational programs available to children ages 0-8 years of age. The student will be exposed to career opportunities, the role of responsibilities of a teacher and age appropriate curriculum in Early Childhood programs. The student will study the field from historical and cultural perspectives. The student will study the curriculum components and teaching modalities that are critical in an early learning program.

Required Texts

Required Materials
- Scantrons for quizzes (the long version)

Institutional Student Learning Outcomes
A. Critical Thinking: Analyze problems by differentiating fact from opinions, using evidence, and using sound reasoning to specify multiple solutions and their consequences.

G. Cultural Diversity: Respectfully engage with other cultures in an effort to understand them.
1. Understanding of Young Children: Practices and demonstrate an understanding of child development and their relationships with children and families to understand children as individuals and to plan response to their unique needs and potential.

4. Promoting Child Development and Learning: Practice and demonstrate an understanding of how to promote children’s cognitive, social, emotional, physical, and linguistic development by organizing and orchestrating the environment in ways that best facilitate the development and learning of young children.

Course Requirements and assignment guidelines

NOTE: If you don’t have internet access at home, there are computer labs on campus. If accessing the website proves difficult, see me immediately. DO NOT WAIT until the day of a test to seek help or explain your situation. Alternate plans can be arranged with notice.

Exams
Exams will be given regularly to ensure that you are keeping up with the readings and attending class. Missed exams cannot be made up, even if you arrive late to class.

Late Assignments
Each student is allowed one late assignment. It must be turned in by the next class meeting to receive credit and the grade will be reduced by one letter grade. DO NOT e-mail me your essays and other typed assignments. They will not be accepted. Other late assignments will not be accepted.

not for summer session

Class Policies

Attendance
Because class discussions and group work are an integral part of this course, attendance is mandatory. Up to 3 absences are allowed. After that, you could be dropped. Students are expected to attend every class meeting, to arrive on time and stay throughout the class period. Excessive absenteeism will lower your grade, as well as walking in and out of class. 3 tardies = 1 absence. Students may be dropped from class for excessive tardiness, or for failure to attend class the first day or during the entire first week of the class.

Walking In and Out of Class
When you arrive to class, make sure you have used the restroom, had a chance to eat, check your messages, etc. Walking in and out is rude and disruptive. Any student who makes a habit of walking in and out of class may be asked to leave.

Preparedness
You are expected to arrive on time. You will come to each class session prepared. You will have your books, binder, pens/pencils, any work that is due, and you will be prepared to discuss all readings/assignments.

Discussions
We will have very passionate discussions in class, if and when you feel uncomfortable with the topic, feel free to walk away and inform me after class either in person or in an email or you can also state your discomfort in class during the discussion. I respect all my students’ opinions and I expect everyone in class will do the same. That is the beauty of college; the differing of opinions.

Cell Phones, iPods, etc.
Turn them off and put them away when class begins! Although it may not seem possible, you can survive without talking and texting on your cell phone, or listening to your iPod, for a little over an hour. Talking and texting on cell phones not only distract you, but they are a distraction for me and your peers. Distractions interrupt/disrupt the class and I will not tolerate interruptions. You will be asked to leave if this occurs.

Contacting Me
E-mail is the best and quickest way to contact me. Thanks to modern technology, my e-mail is linked to my phone. Therefore, excuses such as, “I tried to contact you but...” will not work. If you have a problem, do not let it snowball. Contact me immediately. Students are expected to ask questions and obtain help from instructor via email and/or during office hours.

College Policies:

Academic Integrity (Plagiarism)
In accordance with code 9803.28, academic dishonesty is prohibited and will not be tolerated in this class. Violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to, the following actions: cheating on an exam, plagiarism, working together on an assignment, paper or project when the instructor has specifically stated students should not do so, submitting the same term paper to more than one instructor, or allowing another individual to assume one’s identity for the purpose of enhancing one’s grade. Academic dishonesty of any type, such as cheating or knowingly furnishing false information, by a student provides grounds for disciplinary action by the instructor or college. In written work, no material may be copied from another without proper quotation marks, footnotes, or appropriate documentation.

- Plagiarism will result in a zero for the assignment, possible dismissal from the class and disciplinary action from the college. You will not receive credit for any essay missing previous drafts, citations and/or a Works Cited page.

Student Conduct

According to code 9803.15, disruption of classes or college activities is prohibited and will not be tolerated. Refer to the catalog and the Standards of Student Conduct in the Schedule of Classes for more information.

Recording Devices

State law in California prohibits the use of any electronic listening or recording device in a classroom without prior consent of the instructor and college administration. Any student who needs to use electronic aids must secure the consent of the instructor. If the instructor agrees to the request, a notice of consent must be forwarded to the Vice President of Academic Affairs for approval (WLAC College Catalog).
