Hi Kathy -

Your classes booked as requested. Do you want to split your groups of 40 into two sessions for each date? And they're coming for Lolita?

Thanks.

Ken

If possible, I would love to do DEC 4 Tuesday 5:45 pm (Eng 103 #4900) and DEC 1 Saturday 11 am (Eng 102 #8412). Each group should have 40 students.

Thanks!

Thank you, Ken!! We are all so grateful.

That's great about the sessions-- I appreciate it. Students are diving into Lolita as we speak.

For Tuesdays we can do orientation anywhere between 5:45pm-7:50pm

Saturdays we can do orientations between 11am-3pm

Sorry for the delay Ken is entering your November orientation dates from below now.

-Ken
I also have two hybrid classes that begin during second sessions.

I don't know if we can do library sessions for them because one meets on Tuesday evenings from 5:45-9:45 and the other one is on Saturday morning from 9-1 pm.

Can you let me know?

Thanks!

Dear Judy, Ken, and Ken,

I hope you saw the Acknowledgments of The West Guide to Writing. We are incredibly grateful and will be giving you each a fancy edition when the first edition prints in January! If you see anything that looks bad or wrong, please let us know. Judy and Ken Lin have copies.

Can I bug you also about library sessions for my classes? I'd like to do the orientation on the first day and then reserve the room or a bank of computers for the second session so that the students put into practice what you teach them.

These would be my ideal times. Let me know if they work for you. There are 40 per class. I'll be using Ken Lee's brilliant LOLITA hand out.
Eng 103

M  11/19 same times as Wed above for computers only.

Thank you!!
