

Michael Rich

A photograph of a gallery wall with several framed artworks. The wall is white and the floor is light-colored. The artworks are arranged in a line, with some being smaller and others larger. The art styles vary, including abstract and figurative pieces.

Hermosa Beach artist Michael Rich is having a one-man show at West Los Angeles College. The exhibit illustrates the wide variety of his art from abstract to surreal to realism, all within the realm of digital art. The show is in the gallery of the Fine Arts Campus at West Los Angeles College, which is located at 9000 Overland Avenue. A reception will be held on September 16 from 7-9 PM. The exhibit runs from September 2 until October 17, 2008. Gallery hours, other than the reception, are 10AM-4PM M-F. For additional information call: (310)-374 8085.

WLAC offers a variety of art courses including Digital Imaging, Computer Graphics, Design, Painting, Drawing and Ceramics.
