Choose the English 101 class that's right for you!

High School GPA
2.6 or higher

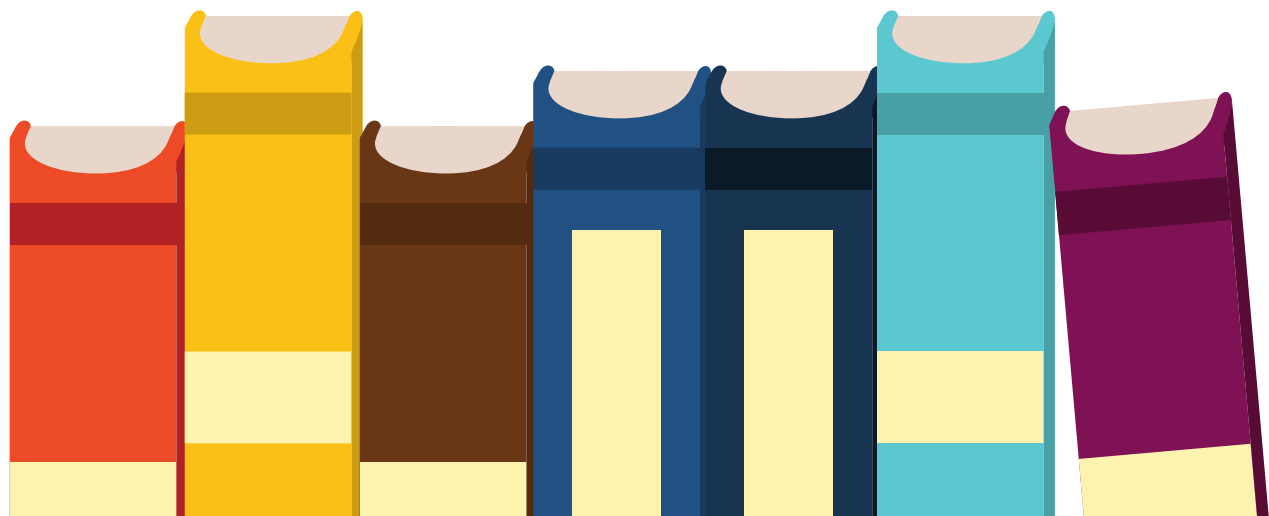

English 101 is a transfer-level reading, writing, and critical thinking course that serves as a foundation for college writing. Research shows that students who have a high school GPA of 2.6 or higher are likely to succeed when placed directly into an English 101 course.

High School GPA
up to 2.5

This course pairing gives students additional academic support to improve the likelihood of success. To take advantage of this offering, enroll in a paired set of English 101 and English 72. The English 72 class adds no additional homework, but provides extra time to practice reading and writing skills with the same instructor.
