Additionally, many students will also qualify for vouchers to cover book expenses and some living expenses as well as grants that cover the second year of tuition.

TO QUALIFY FOR PROMISE, you must:

- ✓ Be a high school graduate or have a GED or equivalent
- ✓ Complete either the FAFSA or CA Dream Act at a WLAC Financial Aid Workshop or on your own
- ✓ Complete a short summer transition program
- ✓ Attend West full-time (12 or more units) in the Fall and Spring and maintain a 2.0 GPA or better

YES! If you took college courses while still in high school, you still qualify for the Promise program

There is no SAT / ACT requirement, but there are a limited number of spots.

COLLEGE WHILE IN HIGH SCHOOL

It's true. You can complete college classes while you're still in high school AND earn credit toward both your college degree and high school diploma! Even better - high school students can take college classes for $0 tuition.

"Dual Enrollment" and "Concurrent Enrollment" courses are available during the day, evening and online. Some West classes are actually offered at high school campuses.
