FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY

Forward thinking. World ready.

Fort Hays State University is one of the leading forward-thinking entrepreneurial universities in the Midwest. Founded in 1902, FHSU faculty and administrators are always looking ahead to identify the skills and competencies that students need to be successful in a global society. FHSU offers several hundred majors, concentrations and certificates in fully accredited and affordable bachelor's and master's degree programs through 28 academic departments. A strong on-campus academic community of approximately 4,600 resident students is served by highly qualified faculty and staff committed to student success. In the past decade, Fort Hays State has emerged as an award-winning global leader in distance education, serving 7,000+ students online and in partnerships around the world.
