"I have learning disabilities... it wasn’t until I attended West LA that I was able to finally find my place academically. To be able to say I’m a college grad is a wonderful thing that I honestly never expected to say!"
WEST WELCOMES A NEW PRESIDENT

After an extensive search and review process, Nabil Abu-Ghazaleh was selected to be the new permanent president of West Los Angeles College, effective August 2011. Abu-Ghazaleh replaces interim president, Dr. Rose Marie Joyce, who held the post for one year while the search for a permanent president was being conducted.

Abu-Ghazaleh comes to West from Coast Community College District where he served as Vice Chancellor of Educational Services and Technology. Prior to that, he served at West’s sister campus, Pierce College, as the Vice President of Academic Affairs.

“West Los Angeles College is fortunate to have someone with leadership experience in strategic enrollment planning and information technology strategy, among his myriad strengths in academic administration. These assets, no doubt, will help WLAC to anticipate student enrollment trends and serve students even more effectively over the next decade,” said Los Angeles Community College District Chancellor Dr. Daniel LaVista.

UNTIL August 29
You may add open classes through the Student Information System (SIS) online until the end of the 1st week of classes. Computers are available to students in Admissions (A-13) and the Library (HLRC).

To register for a class, go to www.WLAC.edu. At the top of the page on the right, click “Register for Classes.” Log in with your student ID or social security number. Your PIN is the month and day of your birth date, unless you change it.

If the class you want is full, you may try to add the class by showing up early on the first day to see if the professor is able to add you. If you are given an add card, take it to the Add/Drop Center in the Admissions Building A-13 by Friday, September 9.

AFTER August 29
You must request an add card from the professor for the class you wish to add. Take the completed add card to the Add/Drop Center in the Admissions (A-13).

Please email the instructor for permission to add an online class. If the professor agrees to add you to the class, he/she will send Distance Learning a request to put you into the class and cc: you. For more information, visit www.WLAC.edu/Online/Enrollment.asp.

CONGRATULATIONS
To West Track & Field who captured the 2011 Men’s and Women’s Western State Conference Championship titles. When they advanced to the State Championships, the Wildcats took 1st place in the women’s 4x400 relay and 3rd in the men’s 4x400 relay and 400m hurdles. The ladies also took 2nd in the triple jump and 3rd in the 800m. 5 ladies and 4 men were named to the U.S. Community College Track Coaches Association All-American Team. 26 Wildcats were named to the Western State All-Conference Team.
NEED SOME CA$H?
With tuition rising, you want to know all you can about Financial Aid. Visit WLAC.edu/FinancialAid and sign up for updates on Facebook such as scholarship announcements, deadline reminders, how-tos, and other useful info.

“I DON’T WANT TO OWE A LOT OF MONEY”
Financial aid is not just loans which must be paid back. Much of financial aid is funds that don’t require any pay back including: Cal and Pell Grants; Fee Waivers; and Scholarships. Some of these funds are awarded based on household income. Some are based on merit (grades and/or activities and personal qualifications). Some are awarded based on a combination.

“I DON’T WANT TO OWE A LOT OF MONEY”
No problem. The Financial Aid Office has a short 4 minute online video to help you. OR, attend one of their regular workshops - monitor WestWeek (WLAC.edu/Events) or the Financial Aid page for dates. OR, get individual assistance from one of our Financial Aid staff. DON’T WAIT UNTIL IT’S ALMOST DUE! It may take time for you to gather the supporting documents you need or to get an appointment with Financial Aid staff. Missed deadlines can mean missed money.

“I’M NOT ‘LOW INCOME.’ WHY SHOULD I APPLY FOR FINANCIAL AID?”
While you might not qualify for fee waivers or grants, you may qualify for merit grants and/or scholarships. Many scholarship applications will ask for a copy of your completed FAFSA form even if the main criteria for awarding the scholarship is not financial need.

“THE FAFSA CONFUSES ME”

WHAT ARE THE DEADLINES?
For this year (2011-2012), you may still apply for a FEE WAIVER, PELL GRANT or Student Loan.

2012-2013 DEADLINES
To ensure that your funds are available at the beginning of the academic year, the Financial Aid office advises students to submit your FAFSA in January for 2012-2013. The priority deadline for Cal Grants is March 2. The final deadline for community college students is September 2.
The reality is that there are hundreds of millions of dollars in scholarship monies available in the United States, and many – if not most – of these scholarships are attainable by regular students with regular accomplishments. There are even dozens of odd and unusual scholarships for all those odd and unusual students out there.

The bottom line is this: You don’t have to be a superstar to win scholarship awards – but you will probably feel like one when you pay for your tuition with free money!

Last year, West students won outside scholarships as high as $3,000 from AltaMed Health Services, California Community Foundation, Association of Educational Office Employees, United States Bowling Congress, Scholarship of America, Dell Scholarship, Golden State ScholarShare and more! Moreover, the West LA College Foundation awarded over $27,000 to 45 West students last Spring.

Counseling: West’s counselors can help you develop your “Student Educational Plan” to meet your transfer goals.

Child Care: The campus Child Development Center offers student-parents quality, licensed care in a modern childcare facility and early childhood education for their youngsters during day and evening classes.

EOP&S provides special academic and financial support services to economically disadvantaged students who have university transfer as a goal.

Financial Assistance: Millions of dollars go unused because students like you do not apply for financial aid to assist with tuition, books and living expenses. Financial aid includes Fee Waivers, Grants and Scholarships - these never have to be repaid - as well as low interest loans.

Library Services: West’s Library provides access to reserve text books, research materials and computers. Instruction on how to use the library, conduct research, search the internet and create bibliographies is available.

Transfer Center: The Transfer Center provides up-to-date information on transfer and admissions requirements for universities around the country as well as information on university majors, financial aid, and support services. Meet with UCLA peer advisors and representatives from other universities.

Transfer Honors Program participants receive priority admissions consideration to selected prestigious four–year institutions including UCLA. Program participants work with faculty mentors, participate in field trips, and hear from a variety of guest speakers.

Tutoring: Students may obtain tutoring in a variety of subjects on the first floor of the Library building (HLRC). Day and evening assistance is available.

For low income students, EOP&S, CARE and Workforce Development are additional sources of financial assistance.

ABOUT DSPS

FOR STUDENTS WITH PHYSICAL OR LEARNING DISABILITIES

Students who have disabilities are invited to visit the Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSPS) office and speak with a program representative about program eligibility and services which include:

- Assistance with Department of Rehabilitation sponsored support services (i.e. transportation, educational materials, books, and supplies)
- Classroom accommodations
- Learning Strategies / Study Skills classes
- Recordings for the Blind and Dyslexic
- Program Planning and Counseling
- Registration Assistance
- Special accommodations for Hard of Hearing/Deaf and visually impaired students
- Test proctoring and other related accommodations

SUCCESS CLASS

LEARN HOW TO SUCCEED

Personal Development courses prepare students to get the most out of campus programs, study effectively, use the library, identify a career, acquire educational and life strategies, and learn time management and financial planning.

There is a positive correlation between students who take Personal Development courses and academic success.

“Personal Development 5 is the perfect introduction for anyone entering college... I have duly noted and acknowledge this as a blessing in disguise...

I enrolled in Personal Development 5 while contemplating the question, ‘Why is it a requirement [for EOPS students]?’ I manage time well; however, returning to school began to make me doubt that statement... I adopted the reading system covered in Chapter 6 (Learning Success)... After reading Chapter 8, some of the stress I feel about taking exams has been eliminated because I now have a definitive and strategic six-step plan for taking a test... The information on mastering short and long essays has given me new intelligence.

EOP&S | TRIO | EOC
For low-income and/or first generation college students and other non-traditional students, these programs offer some or all of the following:
- Access to additional financial aid and scholarships.
- Priority class registration.
- Academic / career counseling and mentoring.
- How to succeed in college & on the job programs.
- University transfer advisement, field trips and application assistance.
- Cultural and social events.

TRANSFER E-CHAT
In addition to meeting university representatives in person at the Transfer Center, you can chat with them online. At WLAC.edu/Transfer_EChat/, you can talk to representatives from UCLA, CSUN, Pepperdine, University of Phoenix and more.

COHORT PROGRAMS
Many students have greater success and a more enjoyable experience in college when they are part of a program with familiar faces and structure. The following programs offer transfer-minded students the opportunity to progress within a cohort of students, tailored courses and committed faculty & staff. Learn more at: WLAC.edu/Academics/CohortPrograms.html

ACT:
Accelerated College Transfer was designed with mature students in mind. Successful students are able to transfer in 2 years by attending 8-week classes just 2 nights per week or Saturdays + online.

PUENTE & UMOJA:
These programs offer special courses and access to scholarships, financial aid, career counseling, mentoring and more. Both programs are open to all students. However, Puente does emphasize Latino culture while Umoja emphasizes African American culture.

With help from EOP&S and TRIO, this mom graduated with honors. Summer was accepted to 3 universities and chose CSULA to pursue Social Work.

Elvira, an international student, decided to adjust to the U.S. and save money completing general education courses before applying to a university. She applied to transfer last Spring and was accepted to Columbia, USC and UCSD.

Raul was planning to kill time while looking for a new job. Instead, he discovered his inner scholar and plans to become a teacher. Through mentoring and other support from the Puente program, he was able succeed and transfer to CSUDH.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

1. What’s “IGETC”? (Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum)

IGETC is a pre-approved pattern of classes accepted by the UC/CSU system from a California Community College to satisfy general education requirements prior to transfer. All California community colleges have individual agreements. For WLAC, Find the chart in the class schedule, online, or at www.WLAC.edu/Academics/Catalog.html (click “Graduation & Transfer Requirements” – scroll to pg. 64)

2. How many units are needed to transfer?

To be admitted as a Junior, a student needs 60 transferable units. Transfer requirements vary widely among private and out of state universities. Visit the Transfer Center resources for assistance with transfer applications.

3. When do I apply to transfer?

The best time to apply is during the priority application periods. The priority application period for Fall 2012 to apply to the CSU system is Oct. 1- Nov. 30, 2011. The priority application period to apply to the UC system for Fall 2012 is Nov. 1-Nov. 30, 2011. Check “Westweek” (WLAC.edu/Events) for transfer updates.

4. I’m a good student now but I got bad grades in my first few semesters. Can I still get admitted to a university?

Absolutely! Many other factors, like your Personal Statement, recommendation letters and extracurricular activities come into play. Also, West offers Academic Renewal and Course Repeat to help boost your GPA.

5. Besides the application and my transcript, what other items will I have to submit to a university to apply?

You’ll be expected to submit a Personal Statement to tell them about yourself. Most universities also require letters of recommendation and references, so get started early!

6. Other than good grades, what else do universities look for in applicants?

Universities are looking for well-rounded people. They would like to see extracurriculars such as after-school jobs, community service or leadership/honors clubs. In your Personal Statement, admissions officers get a glimpse of who you are as a person.

7. Why should I go to the Transfer Center and Transfer Fairs or join EOP&S, TRiO or Honors Transfer? Can’t I just figure it out by myself online?

Maybe. Maybe not. But why waste a valuable resource that is free to you – the WLAC Transfer Center. The Transfer Center is your “one stop shop” for all you need to know about transfer. They are in constant communication with universities and often have more current information than what is available online. And personal contacts can make a big difference in the college you choose and the college that chooses you. The Transfer Center can put you in contact with university reps, many of whom are West alumni, who can give you more personal assistance.

BACHELOR DEGREE ONLINE

West has partnered with prestigious private universities with large online Bachelor Degree programs. These universities offer West students priority admissions and/or concurrent enrollment. Our partners are Fort Hays State University, Brandman University (part of the Chapman University family) and Regis University. In addition to quality programs, FHSU is known for its very competitive tuition for the online program.

NERVOUS ABOUT TAKING CLASSES ONLINE?

Online classes are not for everyone; but they are a good option for disciplined and motivated students. Many of our working students, older students, students with independent learning styles and students with busy schedules love online classes. Online classes are also popular with younger students who enjoy new technologies and a flexible schedule. To experience what an online class is like, visit www.wlac.edu/online to watch the Online Student Success video tutorial. We also offer a 3 week class to help you learn how to succeed online – Education 230: Online Student Success Lab.

Why Physics?

Why take Physics? For some majors and disciplines, such as science and engineering, the reason is obvious. But in the not-so-obvious category comes a University of Utah study indicating that an application to Law School or Medical School is more competitive with the inclusion of physics classes.

I’m not interested in those things. Why should I take Physics? General Physics (006/007) meets an IGETC requirement in the “natural sciences” category. Students with physics classes on their transcripts may be considered more competitive applicants for university admissions. Students are often shocked at how pervasive physics principles are in their lives. From the minute they wake up, turn on their mobile phones, turn on the computer… Physics is there. Over a century ago, the great physicist Ernest Rutherford was asked about the significance of Physics vs. other sciences. His famous response was “Physics is the only science, everything else is just book keeping.” Arrogant? Of course. But no matter what you do in the new millennium, physics will be involved. Without at least some understanding of these concepts, your inclusion into modern life will be incomplete.

Introduction to Astronomy (001) is another option meeting the “natural sciences” category. This course offers students an exciting, inclusive look into the study of the universe. All physical science areas (astro, phys, chem., geol., biol.) are explored in this exciting journey through time and space.

Can I major in Physics at West? Yes! West has reinstalled the Physics major for scientists and engineers. The courses (Phys 037/038/039) take students from Newton and Galileo through the atom and Einstein’s Theories of Relativity.

Professor Elizabeth Bell teaches West’s Physics classes. “Students have been conditioned to believe that physics is strange and scary, and that only someone like an Einstein can understand it. This is simply not true and has been demonstrated time and time again through assessment and student responses,” explained Professor Bell. She added that getting over physics anxiety is a matter of motivation and preparation. “Once you have the basic math down, physics becomes beautiful and elegant.”

Describing her approach to teaching, Professor Bell explains that there is a lot of hand-holding at first, leading to student independence by the end of the semester.

That approach seems appreciated by her students.

■ Professor Bell is “the best Astronomy/Physics professor there is, bar none. She ROCKS! I recommend her class to anyone who will listen! :)

~ Excerpt from Rate My Professor

■ “You’ve made physics fun and exciting again. What I once saw as a hurdle that I had to get over, has become something I find fascinating and interesting.”

~ E-mail excerpt from former Phys. 038 student who recently transferred to UC Berkeley

Professor Bell joins West from Boeing, where her award winning contributions to simulated dynamic models of threat assessment and defensive response algorithms led to significant recognition by Boeing and U.S. military leadership.

It has been said that Physics is the new liberal studies major. This sentiment is especially important today, with the fierce competition for fewer jobs upon graduation, and science and technology jobs being at the forefront. Physics and astronomy affords students a glimpse into how the world works and our place in the universe. “You can’t get more comprehensive than that,” Professor Bell concluded.

Construction Update

Almost Done!
The Student Services and General Classrooms buildings in the center of campus are nearly complete. The Student Services Building will consolidate nearly all student services into one building and increase the capacity of the Assessment Center. The General Classrooms Building will house Language Arts and Social Sciences. It too will feature modern classrooms, faculty offices and great views.

Complete

- Math / Science Complex
  Smart classrooms, Modern Labs, In-class Laptop Access, Top Dental Hygienist Training Facility

- Road to Jefferson
  Relieving traffic at Overland / Freshman and making it easier to get to and from La Cienega

- S. Parking Structure
  Over 1,000 spots, top floor Solar Farm, Well-lit for evening students

- SC Building Renovation

- Campus Wi-Fi

In Development

The large pit next to the S. Parking Structure is the site of the future 7-floor classrooms and administrative offices building. A new building to house the cinema & television crafts program is being designed and enhancements to the PE facilities are planned.

What will you do when you graduate?
Continue learning.

You’re getting a great education at WLAC. When you’ve completed your Associate Degree, think seriously about continuing your education and earning a Bachelor’s Degree. It will increase your marketability and will pay big dividends in your future. When it’s time to earn yours, consider one of the many high quality online programs from Fort Hays State University.

Since 1902, FHSU has provided students with solid educational choices. In the last fifteen years, we’ve truly become a leader in distance education. You can learn online, anytime and anywhere... affordably. Our programs are perfectly suited for students who work or who have families, and our $174 tuition per undergraduate credit hour is extremely competitive.

Personalized advising, caring faculty and a wide range of support services that are second to none will help you succeed.
