IV. Officer Reports

College Committee Reports:

SAC by Jose Rivera:

- Transfer to Parchment Transcript service (free use from Dec- March)
- LA in the purple category for COVID cases; most likely no graduation
- If we can get to yellow we can host event w/ up to 100 people
- Grants are being given to nursing students and grocery cards to students

WEC Report by Max Jordan:

- A new WEC Committee has been established which has created a bit of tension
- Some feel officers shouldn't be armed on campus
- Mental health services and staff should be on call to respond in some situations instead of officers

Student Success by Irene:

- Black student Support Task
- Drop in higher math enrollment and campaign to fix it

Curriculum by Jocelyn:

- Paralegal studies a required intern class; talked about making it online or not required so it won't stop students from graduating

V. New Business

- Installment: Braxton
- Pop-up food drive: Fri Dec 18th to sponsor w/ $2500 4 meals for 100 students
- ASO leadership retreat (2) during winter session: 1st & 21st of Jan (vote on food, time & date)
