Student Expenses

Your living expenses in Southern California will depend on where you choose to live, the type of housing you get, your transportation and food needs and your lifestyle and spending habits. West Los Angeles College does not have living accommodations on campus. It is estimated that you will need a minimum of $8,500 USD for four months, or $25,500 USD for a year. An additional $2,000 USD is required each dependent (spouse or child) for four months. Excluding transportation to and from the U.S., we estimate your current tuition and fees and living expenses to be:

Estimated West Language Academy Expenses for Two Sessions (4 Months)

Tuition for Two Sessions $3,900 (includes medical insurance, books & supplies)
Housing/Apartment Rent $2,400 to $4,000
Food, Transportation & Personal Expenses $2,200 to $3,500
Total Estimate $8,500 to $11,400

Confidential Financial Statement (Required)

All students who want to study under an F-1 Visa at West Language Academy must complete the statement below. To issue an I-20 to prospective students, the college must be assured that sufficient funds are available to meet all tuition and living expenses for the duration of their studies. The minimum requirement for West Language Academy is $8,500 USD. If you plan to transfer to West's credit program after, you must have a minimum of $17,000 USD.
